What each DVD covers:

These DVDs are designed to help you as group leader get started, and your group members to get focused on the topic each week. On the DVDs there is an initial segment 'Guidelines for Group leaders', a General 'Introduction to the Series' (to play at your launch), and then short 'Introductions' to each of the studies to be played at the start of each group meeting.

- Guidelines for Group leaders (10 minutes)
This segment is found at the start of DVDs 1, 2 and 4 (the start of each Book) and provides helpful suggestions and guidelines for group leaders on how to run the weekly meetings. This segment should be viewed by the group leaders before starting the series.
- Introduction to the series (25 minutes)
This segment on DVDs 1, 2 and 4 introduces each book in the series and can be played at your first introduction meeting. Plan to play this 'Introduction to the Series' on this first meeting when you start each book. This segment of the DVD introduces the whole plan, explains the journey ahead, provides encouragements and live testimonies of people who have done the course before, and shows how to get the most out of the series with 4 Commitments (or 'Growth Goals') to aim at. This first meeting can be informal and books can then be given out in readiness for the first study in your next meeting.
- Introductions to each Study (5-10 minutes)
When you are ready to start the first study, each group leader should have their own DVD that accompanies the particular studies they are doing (see above outline). After an initial time of worship (or whatever the group leader decides to do at the start), play the Introduction to the particular study on the DVD. This is a 5-10 minute introduction to get the focus on the study and to help the group get started. It contains encouragement and motivation, and gives extra inputs and enrichment. After the segment is played, the group leader then takes over and leads the group through the study and questions.

Designed for 'transformation'

I'm sure you will find this series of great value for both new and older Christians. The focus is on transformation, not just information. Christians have been challenged and changed through this series and over 50,000 copies of the original one volume edition have been sold worldwide. We trust you too will find this series of great value in helping to grow believers into mature and effective disciples of Jesus Christ.
