

Omega Discipleship Ministries

'Come let us Worship'

- discovering our highest purpose

This popular book by Ian Malins is an ideal follow-on to Rick Warren's '40 Days of Purpose'. It is a series of 12 studies looking at worship as a lifestyle rather than as just an event on Sundays. In workbook style, each study has an introduction, questions for personal preparation and group discussion, weekly projects and memory verses designed to develop and deepen your awareness of what true worship really is. Week by week you will discover what you were made for and how to begin to enjoy the central purpose for which you were created. This series will help you discover the fuller meaning of worship, not just as something that happens in church, but as something that must touch and transform everything you do. If you haven't thought deeply about the subject of worship before, then this book will open your eyes to its importance in a new way . . .

Over 35,000 copies in print

Ideal for use in small groups

With an accompanying set of 2 videos (or DVDs) to assist group leaders and give group members a 10-15 minute introduction by the author to each of the weekly studies.

Worship video package* Book AU$7.95
Set of 2 Videos (DVDs)
AU$30.00

This 2 video (2 DVD) series provides Guidelines for Group leaders, a general Introduction to the whole series for the opening group meeting, and then 10-15 minute Introductions to each of the 12 studies in the book. These inputs from the author give extra enrichment to the series and provide a focus for each week's meeting. They also help the group leader get started each week. You can order this multimedia package on-line.

For further resources visit: www.omega-discipleship.com